

Fall Break is great at

Programs are free but registration is required. Register at <http://www.nashville.gov/News-Media/Calendar-of-Events>, email us at wpnc@nashville.gov, or call 615-352-6299.

Welcome October

Saunter along the Old Roadway in Edwin Warner Park and explore the beauty of autumn. Bring a picnic lunch to enjoy!
Saturday, October 1, from 10-11:30 a.m.

Take a hike on Tornado Ridge!

Celebrate fall with a hike up the ridge. After darkness descends, we'll roast marshmallows over an open fire.

Wednesday, October 5, from 6-8 p.m.

Programs for all ages:

Fall Bird Banding Research, Tuesday, October 4, 10-Noon. Join scientists at the Nature Center to learn about birds in our area.

Insect-o-rama, Thursday, October 5, 10-11:30 a.m. Explore the fields, forests, and gardens in search of insects!

Get Outside: Family Camping, October 7, 10-11:30 a.m. Learn tricks and trades of camping from the experts!

Warner Park  Nature Center

For ADA Accommodations, please contact 862-8400

